

Gallery of loss

Gallery NAGA on Newbury Street marks World AIDS Day today by displaying the handwritten names of people whose names have appeared in 1995 Globe obituaries saying they died of complications from AIDS. The names represent less than 3 percent of AIDS deaths in Massachusetts since Jan. 1. They are: Andre Secours, 37; Frederick Schwartz, 46; Paul C. Krueger, 47; William T. Farrier, 44; Russell F. Mulligan, 34; George Henderson, 41; Eduardo Paez-Carrillo, 38; Robert Johnson-Schlessinger, 38; Jay Blake, 30; John A. Robinson, 49; Bonnie Hamann, 47; Paul D. McDonough, 42; John Pappageorge, 32; Sean P. O'Sullivan, 34; Michael Smith, 34; John Michael Kelley, 41; Charles F. Reade, 34; William F. Phinney Jr., 49; Michael Quercio, 34; Reginald Taylor 2d, 41; Brian Hogan; Nancy Nellen, 67; Wayne P. Drake, 47; Walter Compton, 53; John W. Purcell, 37; David Schoolman, 51; Robert F. Kiley, 44; Randolph A. Dunlap, 41; John Marlier, 46; John X. LaPorta, 45; David Silber, 41.